

Former Southern Champion Is Victor in Sixth Annual Tournament of National Golf Links of America

WHITNEY WINS CHIEF CUP ON NATIONAL LINKS

Former Southern Champion Beats Richardson Easily in Final Round.

FIRST DOWNS CARTER IN CLOSE MATCH, 2 AND 1

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., Aug. 19.—Just as expected, Nelson Whitney of New Orleans had an easy time in the final round of the invitation tournament of the National Golf Links of America this afternoon when he defeated C. Tiffany Richardson, National, and also Nassau, by 6 up and 5 to play. Whitney's real test came this morning, when he met and conquered Philip Carter in the semi-final round, and the result of this afternoon's match was almost a foregone conclusion.

If there was any one around who doubted that Whitney would beat Richardson, his time for the cultivation of his doubts was limited, for the former Southern champion began the final match by taking every one of the first five holes. With such a start as that the rest was easy. He halved the sixth and lost the seventh and eighth, turning for home 3 up.

Whitney Gets Going Again.

The tenth was halved, but Whitney got going again on the eleventh and by the simple but effective process of taking the next three holes in a row ended the match on the thirteenth green. The cards:

Nelson Whitney, Audubon: Out..... 3 5 4 2 4 3 6 5 4 49
Out..... 3 5 4 2 4 3 6 5 4 49
C. Tiffany: Out..... 5 4 4 2 *
In..... 5 5 5 *

*Bye holes not played.
Whitney started with a hole in the morning with a different composition, for Whitney had to put his best to beat the former junior metropolitan champion by 2 up and 1 to play. At that about all Whitney did was to play almost mechanically, or feel golf and so be in a position to profit by all the chances which were many. Poor direction cost Carter a number of holes, his only real fine golf coming at the fifth and sixth holes, both of which he played in better than par figures and became 1 up instead of 1 down. A twenty-five foot putt gave him a 4 on the fifth, and on the short sixth a long shot was so close to the pin that making the putt for a 2 was an easy matter.

Carter's Lead Short Lived.

At the turn Whitney was 1 up and he clung to his lead on the inward journey by playing brilliant golf, the match ending on the seventeenth, which was halved in 4. Whitney being dominant when the hole began. A 4 on the ninth hole would have given Whitney a 5. The cards:

Nelson Whitney, Audubon: Out..... 4 4 2 3 4 4 4 4 4 49
Philip Carter, Bridgewater: Out..... 4 4 4 3 2 7 6 49
Whitney: In..... 4 4 4 3 4 4 4 4 49
Carter: In..... 4 4 4 3 4 4 4 4 49
*Bye hole not played.

Richardson won his way into the final by defeating Gilbert C. Greenway of Garde City by 3 up and 2 to play.

Oswald Kirby Turns Up.

Oswald Kirby, the metropolitan and New Jersey champion, turned up for the midday round and won the gross prize with an 81. There was a tie for the net prize between A. R. Fish, National, and Malcolm Stevenson, Piping Rock, both of whom made the same score, 87—9.

An interesting match this afternoon, the final in the sixth sixteen, in which Herbert M. Harriman and H. J. Whigham, both of whom won the national championship in the early days of American golf, met each other. Harriman was won.
